Food Menu

We celebrate flavours of the Republic. Sate in epicurean delights that are redolent of ingredients and sensations that were brought by our forefathers, the pioneer generation of what makes Singapore today.

Imbued in nostalgia, our food menu takes inspiration from the humble beginnings of the 60s. Mass immigration permeated cross-cultural influences in local cuisines and are adapted to new palates.

Available daily from 5.30 p.m. to 10.30 p.m.

H O U S E P A R T I E S

Cocktail parties of the 60s got right to the heart of what any great soiree is all about - the booze. Reminiscent of these opulent house parties and the popularity of communal drinking, there is no quicker way to bind a group of people together in friendship than to gather them around one of our punch bowls or to share a decanter of their favourite tippie.

PUNCH BOWLS

Punch is the drink of crossroads; of ships and ports, commerce and adventure. Punch started in the ports of India and the East Indies using native ingredients such as arrack, lime juice, palm sugar and spices, before becoming the first mixed spirits drink to become globally popular. Republic's three distinct punch bowls have been developed in conjunction with David Wondrich, widely hailed as one of the world's foremost authorities on cocktails and their history.

$260 per punch bowl (12 to 15 servings)

PAUL JONES PUNCH

In 1844, the American clipper ship Paul Jones brought the first blocks of American ice to Singapore - not seen here before. Our Paul Jones Punch combines Michter's straight rye whiskey, an American classic, with East India sherry, a dash of curaçao, citrus juice, sugar, and the fragrant oil of citrus peels. And, of course, ice.

STRAITS GIN CUP

The original, bright and refreshing gin sling as enjoyed at the Singapore Cricket Club in 1913, made big enough to share. Farmer's Gin, lemon shrub and sparkling water, spiced up with Bénédictine, cherry brandy and bitters.

CAPTAIN DAMPIER'S RACK PUNCH

William Dampier (1651-1715) was a pirate and an adventurer. This punch is based on Sri Lankan palm arrack stiffened with French cognac as Dampier suggested, and finished with a pineapple-gula melaka syrup and citrus.
