

In the Spirit of the Republic

Singapore, located at the tip of the Malay peninsula, historically part of the Kingdom of Singapura, a part of both Majapahit and Siamese kingdoms, and previously known as “Temasek” officially became independent as the Republic of Singapore on 9 August 1965.

A decade of seismic change across the world, the 1960s was a time of hope, promise and new beginnings. Counterculture and social revolution defined an era of new music, clothing, intoxicants and thinking. Boundaries were tested and pushed. The genesis of the modern day Lion City was one of these momentous occasions of the decade.

Republic is our homage to now and then – celebrating freedom, expression and individuality. We present flavours, ingredients and sensations inspired by the influential hallmarks of pop culture in the 1960s – Art, Cinema, Fashion and Music. Enjoy the stories while you imbibe on liquid history.

ART

The visual arts of the 1960s reflected the social and political movements of that era. Prosperity brought about opportunities for artists and collectors, while the civil rights movement and sexual revolution offered greater participation in the arts. Boundaries between fine and popular art were broken down through experimentation with new media, styles and forms.

H O U S E P A R T I E S

Cocktail parties of the 60s got right to the heart of what any great soiree is all about - the booze. Reminiscent of these opulent house parties and the popularity of communal drinking, there is no quicker way to bind a group of people together in friendship than to gather them around one of our punch bowls or to share a decanter of their favourite tipples.

PUNCH BOWLS

Punch is the drink of crossroads; of ships and ports, commerce and adventure. Punch started in the ports of India and the East Indies using native ingredients such as arrack, lime juice, palm sugar and spices, before becoming the first mixed spirits drink to become globally popular. Republic's three distinct punch bowls have been developed in conjunction with David Wondrich, widely hailed as one of the world's foremost authorities on cocktails and their history.

$260 per punch bowl (12 to 15 servings)

PAUL JONES PUNCH

In 1844, the American clipper ship Paul Jones brought the first blocks of American ice to Singapura - not seen here before. Our Paul Jones Punch combines Michter's straight rye whiskey, an American classic, with East India sherry, a dash of curaçao, citrus juice, sugar, and the fragrant oil of citrus peels. And, of course, ice.

STRAITS GIN CUP

The original, bright and refreshing gin sling as enjoyed at the Singapore Cricket Club in 1913, made big enough to share. Farmer's Gin, lemon shrub and sparkling water, spiced up with Bénédictine, cherry brandy and bitters.

CAPTAIN DAMPIER'S RACK PUNCH

William Dampier (1651-1715) was a pirate and an adventurer. This punch is based on Sri Lankan palm arrack stiffened with French cognac as Dampier suggested, and finished with a pineapple-gula melaka syrup and citrus.

DECANTERS

Add a little cosy home-style sophistication to your cocktail experience by sharing a decanter of your favourite tippie.

Food Menu

Republic's dining menu takes inspiration from the social and cultural trends of the 1960s. Mass immigration and the rise of the international jet set facilitated the permeation of cross-cultural influences in local cuisines, and adapted to new palates. Post-war industrialisation revolutionised the supply chain and food business, and fast food started to become a worldwide phenomenon. In Singapore, the streets were filled with the heady aromas of local spices as pushcarts plied their humble home-cooked dishes.
